In the evening of November 9, 2020, The Native Village of Goodnews Bay was placed on an emergency lockdown due to a positive case of COVID-19 until further notice.

On November 17, 2020, the tribe was informed that there are a total of 10 positive cases in the community.

The Native Village of Goodnews Bay will only allow mail and bypass services into the Community. There will be no passenger travel into our hub communities of Bethel, Dillingham and Anchorage, as well as no intervillage travel. Only allowable passenger travel will be for urgent medical situations. Contact the clinic if you are feeling ill or need urgent medical attention.

Returning travelers during the lockdown are ordered to abide by local mandate, strictly 14-day quarantine, isolation if possible.

Stay safe, prayers.
